

Guide to establishing a company under an investment license

وزارة التجارة
Ministry of Commerce

المركز السعودي للأعمال
Saudi Business Center

Version Number: 1
Update Date: 30/06/2025

Establishing a company under an investment license

Steps to obtain the service

Click Start Service	1
Access the account through the unified national access or login for investors who do not hold a Saudi ID or residency.	2
Select the service: From “Electronic Services” > “Starting a Business” > “Establishing a Company Under an Investment License.”	3
Start the service: Select the type and duration of the CR and the company's location, agree to the terms, and then click "Apply for the service."	4
Enter establishment data: Company activities and purposes, including licensing information, if applicable. - Specify e-commerce operations (optional). - Add partners/founders and their information, and verify mobile and email addresses. - Specify the trade name and fiscal year, and enter contact information and address.	5
Select the company type. Company and capital data: Enter the company's duration. Specify the type, value, and distribution of capital, with the possibility of entering tangible assets. Distribute profits and losses, and determine the profit retention ratio (if applicable).	6
Company management: choosing the management structure and appointing directors. - determining the board's operating procedures and assigning powers.	7
Company contract data: partners' decisions, partners' notifications, articles of association (addition or amendment).	8
Review and submit the application: Review the application summary, create a draft contract, and then submit the application after review.	9
Party approval: The parties approve the request via the link sent to them, using the verification code.	10
Payment and order completion: • Pay by card or SADAD. • Review order status and print registration information. • Complete registration with relevant government agencies.	11

To get the service link, click here.

Guide to establishing a company under an investment license

Establishing a company under an investment license

An electronic service provided by the Ministry of Commerce through the Saudi Business Center platform, allowing beneficiaries to begin business activities and submit an application for a foreign company incorporation contract pursuant to an investment license issued by the Ministry of Investment, without the need to visit service centers.

Establishing a company under an investment license (for a limited liability company)

Establishing a company under an investment license (for a Partnership company)

Establishing a company under an investment license (for a limited partnership)

Establishing a company under an investment license (for a joint-stock company)

Establishing a company under an investment license (for a simplified joint-stock company)

وزارة التجارة
Ministry of Commerce

Thank you